A resolution asking for the repeal of the rule, which deals with the disnissal or furlough of teachers who have become mothers, was introduced by Chilton Clark, chairman of the educational committee. Several members of the association, however, while exressing a favorable attitude toward the resolution, urged that the educational committee look further into the matter before the association should Report Shows They Saved This

Maj. Pullman Optimistic.

Following the business meeting, Maj. Pullman, in a short address, declared that he has entered upon his new position with an optimistic view, not with the belief that all is wrong either in the police department or in the city. There will be no great upheaval in either the personnel or operation of the department, he said. In urging an adequate pension system for the police and firemen of the District the major said:

"The securing of the police and firemen retirement fund upon a sound basis round tend to increase and expenses of railroads issued by the Inmen retirement fund upon a sound basis would tend to increase greatly the effithe Commissioners in urging Congress to act on this matter and am glad to ee so many citizens' associations sup-Police Falsely accused.

America and the War

"The lines on the map of our American Continent were nearly all drawn with the sword on the battlefields of Europe. For 200 years the colonies of the New World were mere counters in the war game, as it was played by the princes beyond the sea. Nova Scotia, for example, was tossed to and fro on the bayonets of Europe four or five times, and little Delaware as often, while the people of New York and New Jersey were thrice shuffled back and forth."
